Message from the Manager

It is hard to believe that we are already counting down the final days of 2023. As we get ready to close the book on this year, I want to wish you and your family a healthy and happy holiday and a wonderful New Year.

Looking back over 2023 it was a whirlwind year! Dominated by our economy and political news, I am happy to report that even with the economic struggles Savannah Postal Credit Union is Safe and Sound. Even with all of the above mentioned, nothing is more important than our mission of ensuring we are helping to improve the financial lives of our members and that is our number one priority. We have a great Board of Directors and Committee members, all of whom are volunteers and deserve our appreciation. Their support and contributions are vital to the success of our Credit Union.

I sincerely appreciate your past support and thank you in advance for your continued support during 2024. In this very busy world of ours, we seldom take the time to express our appreciation for the efforts of those who help us in so many ways. I wanted to make certain you knew how appreciative I am. I hope each and every one has a New Year filled with good health, peace and prosperity.

Respectfully,

Nichole Williams

Your tax reporting information will be mailed out in January. It is very important that you keep this information. If you don't receive the information by the second week in February then call our office regarding the matter.

The Board of Directors and Staff at Savannah Postal Credit Union want to wish everyone a safe and Happy New Year!

Snowed Under by Holiday Bills?

It is easy to over-spend during the holiday season. It's much harder to pay off those bills—especially if you charged them on a high-interest credit card. Who wants to spend months paying for the gifts given over the holidays? Let SPCU help you with your holiday bills. Speak to an SPCU loan officer today.
