Romance Scams

SPCU has had several of our members encounter online scams that created vulnerability as well as financial loss.

Here is a list of Warning Signs:

Your new romantic interest sends you a picture that looks more like a model than an ordinary snapshot.

The person quickly wants to leave the dating website and communicate through email.

He or she lavishes you with attention and promises to meet you in person but always seems to come up with an excuse.

Please take it slowly if it doesn't feel right it probably isn't. Be wary of flirtatious and overly complimentary emails. Cut off contact immediately if you begin to suspect that the individual may be a swindler.

Most importantly: Do not send them any money!

FAMILY-FRIENDLY

Your immediate family members are eligible to join SPCU. Spouse, children, grandchildren, sisters, brothers etc. If they are good enough for you, then they are good enough for us.

Christmas joy warms the heart
